

Saint Helens, Mount, 1898 Collection

Object ID	VM1993.017
Scope & Content	This collection consists of twelve original black-and-white prints, two by James H. Eaton and 10 by Edward Sheriff Curtis, documenting the Mazamas 1898 outing to Mount Saint Helens. The most striking image is a Curtis image of two Native Americans encountered on the way into Mount Saint Helens who were drying Cascara bark to sell to laxative makers.
